

KYGO Christmas Crusade
for children and our Mission

First organized in 1983 by a small group of “Santa Cops,” the Christmas Crusade for Children is a program designed to enable city and state police and sheriff’s department personnel to bring the joy of Christmas morning to underprivileged children. Today, law enforcement agencies continue the work of familiarizing themselves with individual family situations, and specifically with the needs and holiday “wish lists” of the children. Through 2015, the Christmas Crusade has touched over 224,000 kids, thanks to the combined outreach by thousands of officers, KYGO listeners, major businesses and concerned individual Coloradoans.

The Christmas Crusade for children is a registered 501C3 organization and all proceeds go to directly to organization to continue this cause.
